

PHFM Leadership Structure

Name	Background/Duties	Contact Information
 Peter M.O. Coleman Executive Director	Peter first began volunteering with Peace and Hope Trust, UK in the late 1990's. After several trips, he returned to the United States to establish Peace and Hope Trust, US in 1999. In 2004, Peter permanently relocated to Nicaragua in order to oversee the organization's ongoing projects and programs. He currently lives in Managua and is responsible for the everyday, in-country operations of the organization, recently renamed Peace and Hope Frontier Mission. Peter has a Master's in Sustainable International Development from Brandeis University.	PHFM/DCT Pista Jean Paul Genie Edificio Escala Managua, Nicaragua Central America Tel: 011-505-8601-9181 E-mail: peterc@peaceandhope.org
 Roger Drost Communications and Education Coordinator	Roger began his work with the first US volunteer team for Peace and Hope Trust in Nicaragua in 1998. Since then he has led volunteer teams every year and facilitated outreach to the most remote villages in Nicaragua's eastern wilderness area under the auspices of Peace and Hope Trust and now Peace and Hope Frontier Mission.	Tel: 978-325-1028 E-mail: rogerd@peaceandhope.org
U.S. Board of Trustees <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Tom Clay, Chair Mark Coleman Noah Erikson Roger Drost Norman Howarth Ralph Drinkwater Peter Coleman Jonathan Shwabsky 	The Board of Trustees exists to oversee all business, legal and financial matters related to Peace and Hope Frontier Mission. Its members support the organization in a variety of ways and maintain a long-term commitment to aiding in the fulfillment of PHT's mission statement.	Mailing Address: 13 Thoreau Circle, Beverly, MA 01915